Terms and conditions

- Papers are delivered in 1 delivery run and can be held up if the Sydney papers are late. As a rule deliveries are completed by 6:30am
- The Herald Sun and The Age do not arrive until 7:30am and so are delivered the following day
- Accounts are sent on the 1st of each month. We request that they are settled in 7 days.
- Any account not settled by the production of the next month's statement will incur a $0.50/week late fee.
- Any account not settled after 2 months will have deliveries ceased.
- Any account not settled after 3 months will be referred to a collection agency and any costs associated with the collection of the debt will be added to the outstanding balance.
- Delivery charges are charged/paper using the following table:

Deliveries/week	All Papers
1	$0.40
2	$0.60
3	$0.80
4	$1.00
5	$1.20
6	$1.40
7	$1.60

- Magazines are delivered at 20c/magazine
- If you chose to have a statement posted there will be a 25c/week administrative charge. Emailed statements are not charged this fee.
- If you do not receive your paper, due to missed delivery or theft, contact must be made with the Newsagency by 11am the same day as delivery if you want a credit or replacement. This will allow the issue to be investigated thoroughly.
